

Summertime (La Belle Saison)

In this recently released award-winning French film (with subtitles), Carole and Delphine fall in love against the backdrop of the feminist movement politics of 1971 Paris. Things become complicated when Delphine must return to run the family farm. Includes beautiful film footage of the French countryside. Starring Cecille de France and Izia Higelin. Directed by Catherine Corsini. (Not Rated)

FREE. Join us in the Friends Room of the Library (5501 28th Ave. S.). Complimentary water, soda, popcorn and candy. Donations accepted for the Library LGBTQ Resource Center. Bring your own "brown bag" supper and beverages.

SAVE THE DATE: Thursday, February 9th
"SOUTHERN COMFORT" (2001):
a poignant documentary about the final year