

About Us

The purpose of the Resource Center is not only to provide a welcoming communal space to the large LGBTQ population of Gulfport and Pinellas County, but also to establish a sense of awareness and advocacy for a segment of the Gulfport community that is ingrained in the very fabric of the community; its history, unique sensibility, and accepting creative spirit. The LGBTQ Resource Center is a project of the non-profit Circle of Friends of the Gulfport Public Library.

Newsletter of the LGBTQ Resource Center

Summer 2018

A quarterly newsletter keeping you informed about what's happening at the Gulfport Library's LGBTQ Resource Center.

From our Chair...

Daniel Hodge

We are coming off another very active Pride Month in which the LGBTQ Resource Center has presented a variety of programs from entertaining, to educational, to artistic and in each one, inspirational. We are creating a tradition of a full month of Pride programs each year and growing stronger. Heading into summer, we look forward to continuing our monthly free film series as well as welcoming a Florida teacher and children's book author in July who has recently published the first children's picture book on the LGBTQ Pride Flag. Join us as we create new traditions and nurture new ones! We also have a new email address: LGBTQGulfport@gmail.com.
